

Our valiant peacemakers clothed in blue are worthy to be included in your prayers to our Heavenly Father. They are deserving to be a subject of your support as they continue to serve you and protect you in this perilous battlefield. This heartfelt compilation of prayers and poems will surely be a reminder for you to keep your favorite warrior and their family in your prayers, in your thoughts and in your heart, as they devote their lives to assuring you and your family of continual safety. This treasury of unfeigned words promises to be your perpetual and accessible companion when your favorite front-line responder comes to your mind. This concise compendium exudes admiration, gratitude and tenderness toward the thin blue line; that distinguishable line which is filled with fortitude, strength, and prowess. These are just a few of the many obligatory attributes of an officer which manifests his ability to persevere to obtain the successful outcomes of righteousness and to ensure our communities of the attainment and the unceasing containment of justice and peace.

This tribute dedicated to the men and women in blue largely unifies my passions in supporting their endeavors, together with your passions, as you pray for our heroes and lift them up in prayer to our Heavenly Father. We, the faithful read in God's Word that where two or more are gathered together in his name, God will be with us, in our midst. Carry this keepsake, keep it close to your heart and accompany me in lifting up in prayer our men and women in blue.

To my faithful, long-suffering, and high-minded supporters of law enforcement (and of course, my passion for the support of law enforcement agencies, and their officers' (and of course, always including their beloved K-9 officers), runs deep and strong within me)

Loudly, I am a lover of goodness and morality, and I will forever boast these truths.

My father took great pride in protecting our community while serving as Sheriff, and my son serves courageously beside his K-9.

My passion to pray for and in some way, encourage all officers, is fueled by my love for decency, an innate support for the peacemakers, and my love for them as my brothers and sisters in Christ.

I continually pray fervently for all officers' safety, health, life, and well-being.

In my ministry, I am vocal and sincere in all my efforts to pray for and support all those who attempt to uphold what is right. Our officers are noble, just, and courageous.

I believe whole-heartedly in the much-needed profession of law enforcement, and I plead with you, to please pray along with me for all officers' safety.

'TO PROTECT AND SERVE' is now available around the world. For all of us who believe in striving for righteousness, we have the opportunity to hold tightly onto this companion book during our silent prayer time, and just as importantly, in the times when we will share this commemorative with our warriors and supportive families and friends, to remind them that in every one of the officer's endeavors to keep lawfulness, their brave responses to calls, are never in vain.

Please keep this prayer companion near you always, a tribute to a passion I know you hold deeply in your heart. I pray that you will find solace in this tribute. Please continue to share your own courage and wisdom of what is right, with legitimacy, with our world.

Thank you for your fearlessness to continue to stand up to continue to support lawfulness on this earth. We must unite in prayer for the safety and well-being of God's peacemakers.

May God bless you richly for serving Him, for praying for our peacemakers, and for fighting out loud for the prosperity and stability for those who protect and serve our communities.

Sincerely,
Arlene Alma Pohl
