

CITY OF MOLALLA

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

PROPERTY/EVIDENCE & RECORDS SPECIALIST POLICE DEPARTMENT

FLSA Status:	Non-Exempt
Department:	Police
Union Representation:	Represented

Purpose of Position:

Perform a variety of moderately difficult to complex administrative support activities within the police department to contribute to efficient office operations. Requires a thorough understanding of department procedures and City programs. Duties include processing and distributing police reports, criminal histories and driving records via law enforcement data bases, providing information to citizens, other agencies, officers, co-workers and others both in person and on the phone.

Perform a variety of duties related to securing, recording, processing, and disposing of property/evidence, offender registrations and fingerprinting the public.

A variety of moderately difficult to complex tasks are performed within generally defined procedures and are reviewed periodically for accuracy, adherence to established policies and procedures, quality and thoroughness. Work is performed under general supervision and assistance is readily available from supervisor(s). This classification is expected to function independently in daily tasks and required to use judgment on non-routine matters. Problems are identified and solved, and unusual/complex problems are referred to a supervisor.

Essential Job Functions:

PROPERTY DUTIES:

Receives, inventories, controls and disposes of property and evidence taken into custody by officers within the department. Maintains records of all evidence and transports evidence to crime labs. Maintains chain of custody on all property to include proper tracking of property via the current property system. Maintain continual processing of property with emphasis on consistent movement of property via: release, disposal or sale according to law.

Responsible for the disposition of all property and evidence according to policy, laws and court orders. Track, prepare and release to auction of all property meeting criteria under the law. Evaluate public requests for release of evidence and property. Verify cases are completed or limitation has run out before releasing property. Notify owner of property on procedures and time limits. Coordinate with case officer and Court prior to authorizing release of property.

Maintenance of property room, property inventory and control; maintenance of crime scene investigative materials. Annual audit of property room. Maintain complete and accurate records on all transactions made on property and evidence such as release of evidence to an officer of the court. Transport evidence to and from crime labs and other law enforcement agencies as needed.

Request purchasing and administrative activities related to property and evidence identification, collection, transport, storage and destruction.

Prepare correspondence related to duties and maintain related files which may be used for court or administrative proceedings. Testify in court related to chain-of-custody if necessary.

Maintaining the department's Property and Evidence Department. Assuring that the maintenance of all property and evidence department records keeping is accurate to include property and evidence retention periods.

Schedule, organize and process public fingerprinting.

RECORDS SPECIALIST:

Provide customer service for police department. Greet visitors and answer telephone, determine nature of visit/call, direct to appropriate person, or take and relay messages in absence or preoccupation of department personnel. Respond to routine, non-routine and technical questions regarding City ordinances and State laws, and Department services including crime reports, towed vehicles, and community programs.

Retrieve, interpret, and disseminate teletypes, reports, and information from law enforcement computer systems, databases, and other sources.

Enter, verify and clear a variety of information into appropriate computer systems with a high degree of accuracy; including stolen, repossessed or towed property, and missing/runaway/endangered persons and warrants.

Collect fees and provide receipts for towed vehicles, police reports, public records requests, and other department fees.

Process public records, name checks, and other information requests within statutes and guidelines or refer to other agencies as appropriate.

Read, interpret, classify and code information contained in various types of police reports. Enter, modify and cancel data from police reports, traffic citations, permits, forms and other documents into appropriate computer databases.

Establish, update and maintain computerized or manual logs and filing systems to include case management, officer subpoenas, bicycle registrations, equipment inventories and other records.

Respond to police officer requests by telephone, radio system and computer aided dispatch equipment. Provide a variety of information and data entry support including case details, warrants, arrest records, license plate registrations, stolen property, addresses and driving records.

Use word processing software to type routine and non-routine documents, templates, presentation materials, charts and graphics, and other material from general instructions. Perform a variety of administrative duties including faxing, filing, sorting documents, composition and editing of minutes, correspondence, memos and other documents. Proofread, review for grammar, and edit documents as necessary. Examine documents for completeness and accuracy. Correct errors as necessary.

Maintain files and records to ensure easy retrieval, safety and integrity of files and records, in accordance with established retention guidelines. Develop and maintain databases for tracking departmental/program information. Compile information and reference materials for supervisor, or as requested by the public, which may require selecting appropriate data from various sources. Prepare summaries and reports as requested. Enter data into computer system from a variety of documents.

Prepare information packets for use within the department. Generate and distribute data and statistical reports from computer systems and other sources.

Perform ongoing supplemental records assignments on a rotating basis such as officer court subpoena coordination, court sealed and expungement orders, LEDS validations (guns, vehicles, articles, etc.) and records retention and destruction tasks.

Maintain cooperative working relationships with City staff, other organizations and the general public.

Follow all safety rules and procedures for work areas.

Coordinate and perform other projects, functions, and tasks, as assigned.

Ability and willingness to take, complete, enter and file non-emergency crime reports from victims by telephone and in person; dispatch, assign and clear out desk calls in computer aided dispatch (CAD) system; compile, organize and enter information into standard computerized formats; receives and records evidence and takes photographs; identify reports requiring follow-up by a sworn officer.

Auxiliary Job Functions:

Provide assistance to other staff as workload and staffing levels dictate. Maintain proficiency by attending training and meetings, reading materials, and meeting with others in areas of responsibility. Maintain work areas in a clean and orderly manner. Support and respect diversity in the workplace.

Job Qualification Requirements:

MANDATORY REQUIREMENTS:

General knowledge of office practices and procedures, word processing, spreadsheet software, clerical practices, research methods, report composition and preparation techniques, etc. Intermediate computer skills and the ability to operate general office equipment and to interpret and apply departmental procedures and state, and federal regulations to other personnel and the general public. Individual works with and is responsible for the security of highly confidential information. Persons in this classification are exposed to descriptions of a wide range of crimes and must be able to adhere to strict confidentiality standards and perform duties in a professional manner. Must have the ability to diffuse difficult situations and explain complex rules, laws, and policies to people who are angry, hostile, or distraught. Equivalent to high school education and three to five years of general office experience; any satisfactory combination of experience and training which demonstrates the knowledge, skills, and abilities to perform the above duties.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS/LICENSES:

Valid driver's license. Knowledge of the NCIC (National Criminal Instant Check) system and knowledge of LEDS (Law Enforcement Data System). Certification to access LEDS, or ability to obtain within three months.

DESIRABLE REQUIREMENTS:

Knowledge of municipal government functional areas and specific software utilized within the department. Basic knowledge of Uniform Crime Reporting. Records experience, dispatch experience in law enforcement, fire or security environment.

Physical Demands of Position:

While performing the duties of this position, the employee is frequently required to sit, stand, bend, kneel, stoop, communicate, reach and manipulate objects. The position requires mobility. Duties involve moving materials weighing up to 15 pounds on a regular basis such as files, books, office equipment, etc., and may infrequently require moving materials weighing up to 75 pounds. Manual dexterity and coordination are required over 50% of the work period while operating equipment such as computer keyboard, calculator, and standard office equipment.

Working Conditions:

Usual office working conditions. The noise level in the work area is typical of most office environments with telephones, personal interruptions, and background noises. Work involves extensive personal and telephone contact with the general public frequently under hostile and sensitive circumstances.

Supervisory Responsibilities:

Supervision is not a typical function assigned to this position. May provide training and orientation to volunteers, students and newly assigned personnel on site policies and practices.

Supervision Received:

Works under the general supervision of the Support Services Supervisor.

THIS DESCRIPTION COVERS THE MOST SIGNIFICANT ESSENTIAL AND AUXILIARY DUTIES PERFORMED BY THE POSITION, BUT DOES NOT INCLUDE OTHER OCCASIONAL WORK, WHICH MAY BE SIMILAR, RELATED TO, OR A LOGICAL ASSIGNMENT FOR THE POSITION.

Approved as to form;

City Manager, Dan Huff

4-18-2022

Date